From the Vicarage (almost there!), July 2017

Dear Friends,

I write with great pleasure and excitement as I prepare to move to Burpham vicarage in mid-July, together with my husband Ronald and (for a short period of time), one of our daughters with her husband and three young children. The vicarage will be full! I am very much looking forward to becoming parish priest for Burpham and Poling. Some of you may already know that we are returning to a part of the world which is very familiar to us. We lived for over 20 years in the village of Walberton, and worshipped at St Nicholas, Arundel where I did a stint as churchwarden some years ago. We moved to the Cotswolds in 2007 because of my then work as a civil servant at the Home Office.

It seems that God had other ideas for me as, soon after moving to Worcestershire, I recognised a call to priestly ministry and, in 2011, resigned my job at the Home Office to train for ordination. After 3 years study at the West of England Ministerial Training College and Ripon College, Cuddesdon, Oxford I was ordained in 2014 and have now served my title post in 6 rural parishes on the edge of the Cotswolds. The vacancy at Burpham and Poling came at a perfect time for us, and we are very much looking forward to becoming part of your communities.

At the end of May we made an 'incognito' visit to Burpham fete – surely a taste of things to come! On 25th July I will be licensed as priest in charge in St Mary the Virgin Church, Burpham, and on 6th August at St Nicholas, Poling. It sounds like a continuous round of partying! We are looking forward to joining in with the many parish and community activities we have heard about from your churchwardens, Mike, William, Peter and Billy! As we prepare to move I pray that my ministry among you will be blessed and that God's mission in Burpham and Poling will grow and flourish as we work together to spread the Good News of the Gospel and encourage all to know, love and follow Jesus in and around our villages and beyond.

With love and blessings.

Celia
